National Christian Singles' Seminar Break-out Session Overview

Stacy Jones

Unmarried: The Season of Recognition, Restoration, & Readiness

Whether one desires marriage or not; being in the unmarried state serves great purpose in the life of every believer. If one minimizes the value of this stage in life, it can make the road ahead more difficult on what already promises to be a challenging journey. In this session we will explore RECOGNITION, RESTORATION and READINESS as a means for a fulfilled Christian life in and out of marriage.

Jandel Crutchfield, Ph.D., LCSW

Prioritizing Our Mental Health During a Pandemic

Explore mental health challenges faced by Christian men, women, and parents during the COVID-19 pandemic and in the movement for racial injustice. Unlock spiritual solutions to address these challenges.

Ron Schwind

Financial Freedoms and Literacy

Can you imagine being a single dad, finding out you have cancer, and being a broke teacher? Now picture being married, finding out your cancer has returned, and being a broke teacher. Come to this session, discover how Ron achieved financial freedom, and learn how you can lay a solid financial foundation of your own. This financial freedom unburdens us so we can better enjoy God's creations, contribute to God's purpose and empower generosity within our lives.

Candace Payne-Butler, LCSW

How Minimalism Can Improve Your Psychiatric and Spiritual Well-Being

American culture tends to celebrate busyness, but from a psychiatric standpoint it doesn't create happiness nor contentment. Find out the how the role of minimalism is tied to your Christian walk. Let go of things that don't matter and make room for things that do.

April Ivey

Staying Well, Healthy, and Fit During the Covid and Beyond

Improving your health is an important decision. Hear the story of April's personal transformation. Begin your own journey by addressing three main things you can change. What are they? Come to this session and find out. Bonus: bring comfortable clothes and learn some exercises that you can do at home.

The Hollands

The Mitchells

Meet the Couples with hosts Cobbie Matthews & Candi Smiley

The Moores

The Strouds

Four married couples share their journeys and discuss how they have worked through challenges and celebrate triumphs. In this panel discussion, each couple will share what they learned about maintaining the bond they have with each other and the bond they have with the Lord. Ask questions and be ready for real answers.
